Description of Special Classes

The TVC Style of Riding Medals will be run as a four phased Medal. Riders must complete each class in the division to be eligible for the Championship. Please list on your entry whether you will be in the 2'9" or the 3'3".

Class 17 will be a "Maclay style" Eq Flat class and may include no stirrup work, counter canter, and swapping of horses. Tests are up to the Judge's discretion.

Class 18 will be a "Big Eq" style course with tests built in and will be judged as an Equitation Medal. It may include a trot fence, a fence without irons, a halt, a counter canter fence and/or a hand gallop fence.

Class 19 will be Judged as a Working Hunter class and may include a trot fence and a hand gallop fence.

Class 20 will be "first round jump off" jumper rounds.

Class 31 – $200 Mini Prix 1.10m Jumper Special. Table II 2A/B

$200 CASH TO THE WINNER

No time first round.

Champions and Reserve Champions

At each show, a Division Champion and Reserve Champion will be awarded to the rider/horse with the most points in that division. Ties will be decided by the highest placing over fences.

The Year End Champions and Reserve Champion awards will go to riders/horses that have the highest points at all shows in their respective Division. We also have an award for the high point Jumper rider AND high point Eq/hunter rider who earned the most points throughout the year.

Point System

1st - 7 points

2nd - 5 points

3rd - 4 points

4th - 3 points

5th - 2 points

6th - 1 point

Our Championship Horse Show is the last show of the season. In order to qualify to ride at this show you will need to have ridden in at least one Tri-Valley Classic show during the current season.

Riders at this final show will earn double points! We will be presenting our year end high point rider awards at the end of each division throughout the Championship horse show day!
